

Consignors Must sign the back of this page agreeing to all procedures:

- ◇ Up to 15 items will be accepted per consignor per week (exception: charity consignment bins will be accepted from multiple parties).
- ◇ The Consigner shall receive sixty percent (60%) of the sale price, mailed by check to the consigner after the first of the month following the date of sale. An annual (Sept-July) administrative fee will be deducted from your first consignment check each year. (currently $10)
- ◇ Consignment items remaining in the Shop one month after the DATE of consignment above, will automatically become expired and become property of the Shop. The consigner receives NO PROCEEDS from the sale of expired items.
- ◇ The minimum price for a consigned item is $8 (exceptions: $12 minimum for any Jewelry item and children's smaller sized items to go as low as $5). If you have items that are not worth the minimum consignment amount, we invite you to donate those items to the Shop (you may pick up a donation slip at the front counter).
- ◇ Items priced $16 or higher may be reconsigned once for a lower price than originally tagged, Reconsignments must be done by bringing in the original Consignment Agreement, pulling the item from the shop floor during regular store hours Monday through Friday (no pulls on Saturday) - the front desk will cross off the item that you are removing from the shop floor, and then you may remove the item from the shop and add the item to a new consignment bin with the original tag attached as part of the standard 15 item consignment limit.
- ◇ The price of each item is determined by the consignment team member. You may not under-price or over-price your items.
- ◇ You may facilitate the consignment process by bringing your items to the shop clean, wrinkle free, on hangers, and labeled with your consignment number. No pilled items, stains, snags, or flawed items will be accepted.
- ◇ Consignors may reclaim an item (if not yet sold) within one month of the consignment date by bringing in the consignors copy of the consignment agreement, locating your item(s) and bringing the tagged item(s) to the front desk — we cannot search for your items and we cannot do this by phone. If you have an item that was priced for $25 or more and you have difficulty finding the item in the Shop, you may ask for one of our consignment team members to assist you in locating your item. We cannot do this for every item that you consign as we are all volunteers and have limited hours of availability. The front desk personnel can not assist you either as they are busy helping customers with their purchases, so just ask one of the consignment team to assist you. Please do not attempt to pick up your items on a Saturday or Third Monday of the Month as this is our Monday Madness Sale and is too busy at the front desk.
- ◇ Consigned items must be CLEAN, SEASONAL, and in good condition. We do not accept garments with pilling, stains, rips, odors (no musty clothing or moth ball smelling permitted) missing pieces, (no missing buttons) or other defects. If a serious flaw is discovered after the item has been accepted, the item will be pulled from the sales floor and given to Salvation Army. We will not hold items with flaws for you.
- ◇ Holiday merchandise may be consigned 6 weeks prior to each holiday. All holiday items will become property of the shop once the holiday has occurred and will be reduced for quick sale, and you will no longer receive a check for these items if sold after the holiday has occurred. Holiday items include New Years, Valentines Day, St Patrick's Day, Passover, Easter, Mother's Day, Father's Day, Forth of July, Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Chanukah.
- ◇ Furniture, chairs, chandeliers, and other large items are accepted for consignment by appointment only. Please e-mail photos, measurements, and a description of any large items to TurnOverConsignments@gmail.com for approval and to set up a private appointment.
- ◇ You can check the status of your consigned items either on-line or in-store. We keep a daily log of all consigned items sold in the Daily Sales Notebook located in the back of the shop on the counter, This Daily Sales Notebook is also available for viewing on-line at wwwTurnOverShopWilton.org. (under the Consignment Sales tab)
- ◇ The Turnover Shop is not responsible for any losses including those due to theft, loss, damage, fire, hurricane, flood, etc. We will make every attempt to safeguard your consignments. We use video cameras throughout the store to track goods, shoppers, and merchandise. We are in the business of raising funds for a number of charities in the area, so everything that you consign with us should be considered in that way.

Thank you for your patronage, and on behalf of all of the charities we support, we really appreciate your business. We hope that you enjoy consigning with us. We have been a landmark in Wilton for over 70 years and have donated well over a million dollars to local charities. Our concept of recycling good merchandise made us "green" before it became fashionable, and our volunteers remain committed to doing good for the community. Please sign the reverse side of this page and place this in the first annual consignment bin you submit.
